INVITATION

The Permanent Missions of Brazil and Switzerland, jointly with the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC), cordially invite you to the OEWG side event on:

Protecting Civilians Against Digital Threats During Armed Conflict: The Role of International Humanitarian Law

Tuesday, 5 March, 01:15 pm, UN HQ, Conference Room 12
Food and beverages will be provided.

Over the past two years, the ICRC convened a diverse group of high-level leaders and experts from the policy, legal, military, technological and security fields. The group has developed a set of 25 cutting-edge recommendations to protect civilians from digital threats.

This side event will present some of these recommendations and foster exchange on how States address digital threats during armed conflict and uphold protections under international humanitarian law. It will also explore opportunities for States to join forces and address these issues in multilateral processes, such as the OEWG.

Moderator: Daniel Klingele, Switzerland

Speakers

- Larissa Schneider Calza, Head of the Cyber Defense and Security Division, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Brazil.
- Gulshan Rai, Former National Cyber Security Coordinator, Office of Prime Minister of India.
- Tilman Rodenhäuser, International Committee of the Red Cross.
