

United Nations

Secretary-General's Campaign on Humanitarian Disarmament and Mine Action

A side event co-hosted by the UN Office for Disarmament Affairs (UNODA) and the Department of Peace Operations (DPO)/UN Mine Action Service (UNMAS)

Wednesday, 22 October 2025
1:15 – 2:30 PM

Conference Room 7, United Nations Headquarters

Launched on 16 June, the Secretary-General's campaign calls for renewed global commitment to humanitarian disarmament norms and to mine action as an enabler of human rights and sustainable development. This side event will explore the critical intersections between humanitarian disarmament, mine action, protection of civilians and global military spending, as highlighted in recent Secretary-General's reports. It will discuss the need for a renewed, human-centered approach to disarmament and mine action recognizing its role in protecting civilians and enabling humanitarian access.

A light lunch will be provided before the meeting

United Nations

Office for Disarmament Affairs